Core Capital Group Celebrates 20 Years!

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO, October 2011 – Core Capital Group, a global investment banking firm, has announced its 20-year anniversary. Founded by John L. Graaff, Core Capital Group has been serving the strategic transactional needs of business owners since 1991.

Core Capital Group offers strategic advisory, merger and acquisition, and corporate finance services for middle-market companies. With industry sector expertise in a variety of areas, including technology, media, telecommunications, and business services, Core Capital Group offers expertise from senior-level dealmakers coupled with a global reach. In addition to the headquarters in Colorado Springs, Core Capital has branch offices near Denver, Chicago, and New York.

“We are proud to have served our clients over the past two decades. Our company is structured to provide a range of services that adds maximum benefit to meet our clients’ goals,” said Mr. Graaff. “We’re excited about the future as we’ve helped to form an international alliance to address the growing need for a global reach for our clients.”

“Over the past two decades Core Capital has gained a reputation for consistently meeting all of its clients M&A needs,” said Terry Piddington, Senior Partner. “We plan to continue to do so as we move into our third decade and beyond.”
