

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Core Capital Group Represents ETI Professionals, Inc. in Sale to Cherokee Nation Businesses

COLORADO SPRINGS, CO, February 14, 2011 – Core Capital Group announced that it acted as exclusive M&A advisor to ETI Professionals, Inc. of Lakewood, CO, in its sale to Cherokee Nation Businesses (CNB) of Stillwell, OK in a deal completed on January 31, 2011.

ETI's home office is located in Lakewood, CO, but regional offices exist in San Antonio, TX; Tampa, FL; Baltimore, MD.; and Shirley, MA. The company has 375 employees and contracts in 40 states, servicing the United States Departments of Commerce, Defense, Energy, Health and Human Services, Homeland Security, Interior, Transportation and the EPA.

Cherokee Nation Businesses was formed in 2005 to serve as a holding company for the Cherokee Nation's diversified business acquisitions, with a goal of creating a strong, sustainable economic engine. The company is focused on five business segments - health care, aerospace, information technology, gaming and hospitality, and construction.

"We are very pleased to see this transaction completed as it clearly represents a business combination that benefits both parties," said Terry Piddington, Senior Partner of Core Capital Group.

About Core Capital Group

Core Capital Group is a Colorado-based investment banking firm that specializes in mergers and acquisitions. We are a member of the Alliance of International Corporate Advisors (AICA) with 28 member firms and over 100 professionals located in 18 countries.

For additional information contact:

Lana Williams

Core Capital Group

(719) 598-4680

lwilliams@corecapital.net

www.corecapital.net